

Chain of Responsibility Statement

NCH Logistics Pty Ltd identifies its responsibility as an operator within the chain of responsibility (CoR). This means that anybody, not just the driver, who has control (loaders, head carriers, employers, and owner operators) in a transport operation, can be held responsible for breaches of road laws and may be made legally liable.

This means, those who use road transport (consignors, consignees, or receivers) as part of their business, share responsibility for ensuring breaches of road laws do not occur.

If a breach of road transport law occurs due to someone's action, inaction or demands, they may be legally accountable.

Control = responsibility = legal liability.
